Whitehall, Sept. 30.

THE Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of London, having reſolved to make a very Loyal and Dutiful Addreſs to His Majeſty, they deputed Sir John Houblon and Sir Richard Levett Aldermen, and Four of the Common-Council, to preſent the ſame to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, who accordingly attended their Excellencies this day, and preſented the ſaid Addreſs; Their Excellencies received it with great Satisfaction, and told them they would ſend it to His Majeſty, and commanded that it ſhould be printed in the Gazette.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of Your City of London, in Common-Council Aſſembled.

Great SIR,

WE are deeply Senſible how much we are in Duty bound highly to Reſent that Great Indignity and Affront offered to Your moſt Sacred Majeſty by the French King, in giving the Title of King of England, Scotland, and Ireland, to the Pretended Prince of Wales, contrary to Your Majeſty's moſt Juſt and Lawful Title, and to the ſeveral Acts of Parliament for Settling the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line.

By this it is apparent he deſigns, as much as in him lies, to Dethrone Your Majeſty, to Extirpate the Proteſtant Religion out of theſe Your Majeſty's Kingdoms, and to Invade our Liberties and Properties; for the Maintaining whereof, Your Majeſty has Signalized Your Zeal by ſo often Hazarding Your Precious Life.

We therefore, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal Subjects, do Sincerely, Unanimouſly, and Chearfully, aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will at all Times, and upon all Occaſions, exert the utmoſt of our Abilities, and contribute whatever lies in our Power for the Preſervation of Your Majeſty's Perſon, (whom GOD long Preſerve,) and the Defence of Your Juſt Rights, in oppoſition to all Invaders of Your Crown and Dignity.

Aſhurſt.

Naples, Sept. 6 N. S. The Viceroys of this Kingdom and of Sicily uſe all poſſible Endeavours to get together the Sums required of them by the Court of Madrid, to be remitted to Milan for the Subſiſtence of the Spaniſh Forces in that Dutchy. Several new Taxes have been laid for that purpoſe, and among other Means made uſe of to raiſe Money, they have reſolved to ſell all the Publick Offices, which Practice is already begun in Sicily. The Princes of Monteſarchio and La Torella, in conſideration of a Sum of Money they have advanced to the Government, have the Privilege of engroſſing all the Corn in this City, which they are to ſell at a certain Price. The Diſcontent againſt the French encreaſes daily, and the People ſeem generally diſpoſed in favour of the Emperor.

Florence, Sept. 23. Prince Alexander Sobieſky, one of the late King of Poland's Sons, is come hither from Rome, and intends in few days to be going for Poland. They write from Rome, that the Spaniſh Ambaſſador there had Audience laſt week of the Pope, and very much preſſed him to grant the Inveſtiture of the Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily to the King of Spain; to which the Pope replied, That the Congregation he has appointed to conſider of that Affair would bring in their Report with all the Diſpatch a Matter of ſo great Weight could admit of, and till then he could not give him any particular Anſwer. 'Tis ſaid, the Ambaſſador at the ſame time acquainted the Pope, that the King his Maſter was very much offended with Signior Aquaviva, the Nuncio in Spain, for ſome Expreſſions he uſed in relation to the Baniſhment of the Inquiſitor-General from the Court of Spain, and deſired he might be recalled. Letters from Naples ſay, the Marquis del Vaſto hearing Orders were given for apprehending him, for having declared too openly his Sentiments in favour of the Houſe of Auſtria, he retired to Ancona, being unwilling unſeaſonably to expoſe his Vaſſals, who were ready to take up Arms in the Country of Abruzzo.

Venice, Sept. 23. Signior Aluiſio Mocenigo, lately choſen by this Republick to be their Ambaſſador to His Majeſty of Great-Britain, began his Journey to England ſome days ago. Monſieur de la Haye, Ambaſſador from France, has left this Place, in order to return home. Signior Mario Zani is appointed by the Senate to be General of the Venetian Forces in Dalmatia, in the room of Signior Sebaſtiano Mocenigo, who has compleated the term of 3 years, the uſual time for holding that Employment. A Merchant Ship is come in here from the Coaſt of Barbary, the Maſter of which reports, that the Galleys of Maltha have taken near the Caſtle of Goletta 2 Ships belonging to Tunis, who had on board about 800 Men.

Turin, Sept. 24. The Queen of Spain, went from hence the 11th Inſtant for Nice. She was accompanied by the Dutcheſs of Savoy, her Mother, and by the Dutcheſs-Dowager, as far as the Frontiers of the Country of Nice. Their Royal Highneſſes returned hither the 18th, and have
